1.0 PREFACE

1. Standing Order 167 of the Kericho County Standing Orders mandates the Committee on Selection to nominate members to serve in committees save for the membership of the Assembly Business Committee and the Committee on Appointments.
2. The first Committee on selection led by Hon.Vincent Korir placed members to various committees on October 2022 and Report tabled in the house and adopted.
3. However, following the changes in the County Assembly leadership it gives mandates to new majority leader (Hon.Paul Chirchir) to lead the committee on selection on placing members to various committee basing on wish list ,regional balance and gender amongst other factors that the committee deemed fit for the purposes of balancing the number of committee that every member should have to avoid instances which members have great variances in allocations to serve in committee. Additionally, following the adoption of the first report of the Selection committee, a section of Honorable Members expressed their dissatisfaction with the committees that they had been placed to serve in .
4. To address the concerns raised by the Honourable Members and to balance the membership of committees, the committee on Selection resolved to reconstitute the membership of various committees.
5. Upon the nomination of Honorable Members to various committees, it necessitated election of new leadership.
