The Speaker (Hon. Dominic Rono): Honorable Paul Chirchir what is the point of order! You take your seat Hon. Erick Bett!

Hon. Paul Chirchir: Thank you very much Mr. Speaker for this opportunity. I have risen on a point of order! We have seen papers being laid on the floor of the House without following rules and procedures of the House. So we are asking you which procedure did you use to lay the papers without giving us the report to us as an Assembly?

The Speaker (Hon. Dominic Rono): Thank you, so next order!

Hon. Bernard Mutai: Point of order

The Speaker (Hon. Dominic Rono): Yes, on what provision of the Standing Order?

Hon. Bernard Mutai: Section 54 of the Kericho County Assembly Standing Orders. I have just seen somebody standing here as Chairman of which I don't know to which committee? Because Mr. Speaker Sir...

The Speaker (Hon. Dominic Rono): Order! Order!

Hon. Bernard Mutai: Allow me to read Mr. Speaker Sir!

The Speaker (Hon. Dominic Rono): Order! Order!

Hon. Bernard Mutai: Allow me to read Mr. Speaker Sir, Standing Order number 54 ...

The Speaker (Hon. Dominic Rono): Order!

(Applause)

Hon. Bernard Mutai: The Assembly Business Committee shall allot the time and sequence the publication in Order Paper of every motion approved by the Speaker. Mr. Speaker I would like to know if this committee passed through the right procedure because we don't want to operate on an illegality. This Assembly is guided by the law and we should follow that law. Thank you Mr. Speaker Sir.

The Speaker (Hon. Dominic Rono): I wish you had listened Honorable Benard Mutai! The Standing Orders of Kericho County Assembly, Standing Order number 54 speaks about personal statements so I thought that that is what you should know. Next Order!

The Speaker (Hon. Dominic Rono): So we adjourn until tomorrow, 9.30am. Thank you.
